

Dr. Sashi Kumar
MBBS; DLO; FACEM.

Dr. Sashi Kumar trained in Chennai, India , New Zealand and Australia. He is a Senior Staff Specialist in Emergency Medicine and Honorary Lecturer in Emergency Medicine at The Canberra Hospital and The Canberra Clinical School which is affiliated to the University of Sydney and The Australian National University in Canberra. He is the Site Medical Commander for Disasters in the Australian Capital Territory.

He was the deputy chair person of the National EMST/ATLS Committee based at the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons in Melbourne and Directs the EMST/ATLS courses in Canberra for over 21 years. He has directed and instructed EMST/ATLS courses in Australia, New Zealand, Singapore, Fiji, Papua New Guinea and New York since 1992. He was awarded the National EMST Scholarship in 2000.

He is also an Instructor of The CRISP (Care of the critically ill surgical patient) course ,The ELS (Emergency Life Support) Major incident Medical Management and Support (MIMMS) courses and is a Senior Instructor of the Emergotrain System – Simulation Exercising in Disaster Medicine.

He has instructed and directed The CTLS (Comprehensive Trauma Life Support) Course in India over the last 12 years.

He is a practicing Emergency Physician and was The Helicopter Retrieval consultant and Flying Doctor until recently in a Tertiary level major teaching hospital which is also the major Trauma centre for the region.

His special interests are Trauma, ENT, Disaster Medicine and Orthopaedic Trauma and Adult teaching in Medicine for doctors and allied health.